West Windsor Forward Announces 2025 Candidate Forum

West Windsor, NJ – [April 26th, 2025, updated July 19th, 2025] – West Windsor Forward, a group of dedicated West Windsor residents committed to uplifting and informing our community, is pleased to announce that it will be holding a non-partisan candidate forum for the 2025 West Windsor Township elections for Mayor and Council. West Windsor Forward is led by long-time West Windsor residents and students at the Lawrenceville School; Parth Gupta and Darshan Chidambaram. This forum marks the return of a vital voter tool, as the Township has not held a Mayoral forum since 2013 and has lacked Council forums since 2015. West Windsor Forward is committed to not only reinstating this tradition, but also enhancing it with experienced panelists, an in-person audience, and live-streaming for expanded access.

General Information:

What is a Candidate Forum?

Candidate forums are public events where people running for office share their views, answer questions, and explain what they would do if elected. These forums are similar to debates, but they are usually more focused on informing voters rather than challenging opponents. Forums allow voters to hear from multiple candidates in one place and learn where they stand on important issues.

Positions:

The forum will feature candidates for the following positions, each assuming that there is a contest:

- Mayor of West Windsor Township
- 2 seats on West Windsor Township Council

A separate forum will be held for the Board of Education if three or more candidates declare candidacy for the two seats up for election in 2025.

Date and Location:*Kelsey Theatre @MCCC - Thursday Evening, September 25th, 2025

Thanks to the efforts of the League of Women Voters of the Greater Princeton Area, particularly Ms. Deborah Macmillan and Ms. Rita Caldwell, and the generosity of Mercer County Community College, the Kelsey Theatre will serve as our forum venue. This spacious and modern facility is centrally located. The forum is anticipated to run from approximately 7:00 PM to 9:15 PM. However, the precise schedule will be determined by the number of candidates who participate.

Panelists:

West Windsor Forward and the residents they represent are privileged to have three distinguished and impartial panelists from diverse backgrounds to moderate the forum:

Micah Rasmussen - Micah Rasmussen is the director of the Rebovich Institute for New Jersey Politics at Rider University. He has worked in the New Jersey General Assembly and managed several political campaigns. After completing his undergraduate studies at Rider under his mentor David Rebovich, the namesake of the institute he now leads, Rasmussen earned his Master of Arts in Political Science from the Eagleton Institute of Politics at Rutgers University. Rasmussen is a panelist for the state's biggest political debates-- twice so far this year in the race to elect New Jersey's next governor, and in the only debate last year between now Senator Andy Kim and First Lady Tammy Murphy. He is regularly included on New Jersey's political power and higher education influencer lists. One called him "the go-to guy for the media to comment on what's happening in New Jersey politics-- and what it means". (While a scheduling conflict prevents his in-person moderation, Mr. Rasmussen will be developing and contributing questions for the panelist Q&A portion of the forum.)

David Matthau - David Matthau is a WHYY New Jersey reporter covering the Statehouse and general assignments in the Garden State. Prior to joining WHYY, David was lead investigative reporter for NJ 101.5 News, winning multiple Associated Press and Society of Professional Journalists awards, the National Association of Broadcasters Service to Community Award, and contributed to the National Edward R. Murrow Best Newscast award. David is a graduate of the University of Southern California.

Rhea Biswas - Rhea Biswas is a West Windsor high school student passionate about politics and social justice, with hopes of pursuing a career in law. She regularly competes in debate competitions and Model Congress conferences, as well as writes for her school newspaper and a local newspaper, The West Windsor Voice. She is committed to transparent debate and honest discussion in order to better advocate for meaningful change in her community.

Format:

The forum will consist of the following parts:

- Part 1: Equal time Q&A sessions for Mayoral and Council candidates, respectively, with questions from the panelists.
- Part 2: Town-hall style Q&A for Mayoral and Council candidates, respectively, with questions from the audience and community members.
- Part 3: Informal meet-and-greet session between candidates and voters.

To ensure fairness and impartiality, the forum will be moderated, all candidates will be given an equal opportunity to speak, and personal attacks will not be permitted. The revamped forum includes questions from panelists, live-streaming the event for greater accessibility, and fostering an interactive town-hall style Q&A session.
